Milestones by Reporting Date

Milestone use and reporting has begun for most specialties and subspecialties. Listed below are the specialties that will report for the first time after July 1, 2015. Milestones FAQs and the Clinical Competency Committee Guidebook are available. If you have additional questions, please email milestones@acgme.org.

Reporting for the first time Winter 2015

- Addiction Psychiatry
- Adult Cardiothoracic Anesthesiology
- Blood Banking/Transfusion Medicine
- Chemical Pathology
- Child and Adolescent Psychiatry
- Child Neurology
- Clinical Informatics
- Clinical Neurophysiology
- Critical Care Anesthesiology
- Cytopathology
- Dermatopathology
- Epilepsy
- Forensic Pathology
- Forensic Psychiatry
- Geriatric Psychiatry
- Hematology – Pathology
- Medical Biochemical Genetics
- Medical Microbiology
- Molecular Genetic Pathology
- Neurodevelopmental Disabilities
- Neuromuscular Medicine
- Neuropathology
- Neurology
- Obstetric Anesthesiology
- Pain Medicine
- Pediatric Anesthesiology
- Pediatric Otolaryngology
- Pediatric Pathology
- Pediatric Rehabilitation Medicine
- Procedural Dermatology
- Psychosomatic Medicine
- Selective Pathology
- Spinal Cord Injury Medicine
- Sports Medicine
- Vascular Neurology

Reporting for the first time Spring 2016

- Diagnostic Radiology – Nuclear Medicine
- Emergency Medicine – Family Medicine
- Family Medicine – Preventive Medicine
- Internal Medicine – Anesthesiology
- Internal Medicine – Dermatology
- Internal Medicine – Emergency Medicine
- Internal Medicine – Emergency Medicine – Critical Care
- Internal Medicine – Family Medicine
- Internal Medicine – Medical Genetics and Genomics
- Internal Medicine – Neurology
- Internal Medicine – Preventive Medicine
- Internal Medicine – Psychiatry
- Pediatrics – Anesthesiology
- Pediatrics – Dermatology
- Pediatrics – Emergency Medicine
- Pediatrics – Medical Genetics and Genomics
- Pediatrics – Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation
- Pediatrics – Psychiatry – Child and Adolescent Psychiatry
- Psychiatry – Family Medicine
- Psychiatry – Neurology
- Osteopathic Programs with pre-accreditation

Reporting for the first time Winter 2016

- Interventional Radiology
- Osteopathic Neuromusculoskeletal Medicine
- Osteopathic Recognition

All other specialties not listed above have already started reporting.