2018 ACGME ANNUAL EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCE

March 1-4 | Orlando, Florida
Rosen Shingle Creek

ENGAGING EACH OTHER:
TRANSFORMATION THROUGH COLLABORATION

ACGME
Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education
DEAR PROSPECTIVE EXHIBITOR:

The Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME) is pleased to announce that the 2018 Annual Educational Conference, being held at the Rosen Shingle Creek Resort in Orlando, Florida, will once again include an Exhibit Hall for vendors offering educational products for the graduate medical education community.

WHO WE ARE?

The ACGME is a private, not-for-profit, professional organization responsible for the accreditation of approximately 10,000 residency and fellowship education programs and the approximately 800 institutions that sponsor them in the United States. Residency and fellowship education is the period of clinical education in a medical specialty that follows graduation from medical school and prepares physicians for the independent practice of medicine. The ACGME’s volume of accredited programs makes it one of the largest accrediting agencies in the country, if not the world. Stakeholders of the ACGME’s accreditation process are residency and fellowship programs, their Sponsoring Institutions, residents, fellows, medical students, patients, payers, government, and the general public. Accreditation offers these stakeholders assurance that a graduate medical education program and its Sponsoring Institution(s) meet an accepted set of established educational standards.

WHO ATTENDS THE ACGME ANNUAL EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCE?

The ACGME Annual Educational Conference affords stakeholders the opportunity to receive the latest information regarding accreditation, education, assessment, and the learning environment, and to gain perspective on innovations in graduate medical education. The 2017 conference enjoyed approximately 3,500 attendees from all corners of graduate medical education, including designated institutional officials, program directors, associate program directors, program coordinators, faculty members, deans, department chairs, and residents and fellows.

WHO SHOULD EXHIBIT?

Vendors marketing educational tools, software, and patient management solutions, as well as publishers and non-profit organizations, are invited to exhibit. The ACGME reserves the right to decline any applications inconsistent with the educational focus of the conference or the organization.

WHAT PAST EXHIBITORS HAVE TO SAY ABOUT THEIR EXPERIENCE...

“Each year you all have dramatically improved. This year I could tell the difference was that conference attendees seemed willing and eager to listen to us and we had a lot of traffic that came through…”

“Large amount of exposure to our market.”

“We were exposed to a variety of individuals interested in our company - from DIOs and residency directors to administrators and clinicians...”

Exhibitors in the Career Corner booths are prohibited from selling or advertising for businesses or positions other than positions in graduate medical education. Recruiting by anyone representing or connected with a non-exhibiting company is strictly forbidden.

All Career Corner tables must comply with the ACGME Rules and Regulations. All recruiting activities are restricted to the confines of the booth space rented.

CAREER CORNER JOB BOARD ON CONFERENCE MOBILE APP
All registered Career Corner booths will receive up to 5 free job postings included in their registration fee. Exhibitor shall indemnify and hold the ACGME and its directors, officers, members, agents, and successors, harmless from and against any and all liabilities, claims, losses, damages, and expenses (including attorneys’ fees and expenses) that may be incurred by or asserted against the ACGME, or its directors, officers, members, agents, or successors, on the basis of exhibitor’s breach of the representations and warranties contained in this paragraph or noncompliance with any provision of the Americans with Disabilities Act, and any other federal, state, and local laws and regulations intended to provide equal access for persons with disabilities, applicable to the exhibitor’s exhibit.

ADVERTISING
Exhibit items, advertising literature, or pamphlets that are distributed may contain only recognized indications and claims. Advertising in any media to the effect that particular products or services have been exhibited at the ACGME Annual Educational Conference or which could be construed as an endorsement by the ACGME or by its members is prohibited. The ACGME name and logo are the exclusive property of the ACGME and may not be used in any way, i.e., on promotional materials, literature, giveaways, etc., by anyone for any purpose without the prior written consent of the ACGME.
ATTENDEE LIST
All exhibitors shall be provided with a list of e-mails for registered attendees to the Annual Education Conference; provided, however, exhibitor acknowledges that some attendees may request their contact information be withheld. The list of attendees who choose to share their e-mail addresses will be e-mailed to exhibitors on Thursday, March 1, 2018 at 12:00 p.m. This list is only to be used during conference hours only. Any violation by an exhibitor of this policy may, at the ACGME’s sole discretion, result in denial of access to the exhibit area, denial of exhibit space installation, closing or removal of the exhibitor and exhibit, and/or prohibition on participation in future Annual Educational Conferences.

EXHIBITOR ATTENDANCE AT THE EDUCATIONAL SESSIONS
Registered exhibitors are welcome to attend the educational sessions to gain new perspectives on graduate medical education and the perspective of both speakers and attendees. However, with the increased scrutiny of industry-physician relationships by federal and state governments, and medical organizations themselves, it is imperative that the ACGME ensure its educational sessions maintain their objectivity and independence from industry, and foster professional behavior by speakers, attendees, and industry representatives.

Therefore the ACGME expects that industry representatives/exhibitors:

- Will not discuss their products or services within the sessions.
- Refrain from asking any questions of the speakers in the meeting room.
- Do not approach the podium/stage at any time and sit in the rear half of the room to avoid any perception of undue industry presence.
- Hold any questions for speakers until they are outside of the meeting room.
- Respect the information acquired in the educational sessions. The information cannot be sensationalized or used in advertising.

If this privilege is misused, it may result in the individual being removed from the Annual Education Conference, the individual’s exhibit being removed from the Annual Educational Conference, or the exhibitor not being accepted to exhibit in future years.

BADGES
All representatives of exhibiting firms must register and wear the official exhibitor’s badge at all times while at the Annual Educational Conference. Company badges will not be accepted in lieu of the official ACGME badge. Exhibitors may not deface or mark badges in any manner. Affixing stick-on items, punching, stamping, or marking badges is not permitted. Individuals who do not have badges will not be permitted into the exhibit area, educational sessions, or meeting spaces. No more than two company representatives may be designated to represent a single exhibitor in any one time period.

OTHER REGULATIONS
It is the responsibility of the exhibiting company to see that all booth staff are aware of and adhere to these rules and conduct themselves in a professional manner throughout this meeting. The ACGME shall have the sole authority to interpret and enforce all rules and regulations governing exhibitors and the Annual Educational Conference. Any and all matters not specifically covered herein are subject to the sole discretion of the ACGME. These rules and regulations may be amended at any time by the ACGME upon written notice to all exhibitors. Each exhibitor expressly agrees to be bound by the rules and regulations set forth herein and by any amendments thereto adopted by the ACGME from time to time.

By exhibiting at the Annual Education Conference, exhibitors authorize and permit representatives of the ACGME to use and publish the company and company representatives names and likenesses, including photographs, digital images, video or audio recordings, and the like, taken during the course of the Annual Educational Conference. Exhibitor, on its own behalf and on behalf of its representatives, releases and holds harmless the ACGME from any reasonable expectation of privacy or confidentiality associated with the likenesses referenced above.
VIOLATION OF RULES

Any violation by an exhibitor of the ACGME’s and Rosen Shingle Creek’s rules and regulations may, at the ACGME’s or Rosen Shingle Creek’s sole discretion, result in denial of access to the exhibit area, denial of exhibit space installation, closing or removal of the exhibitor and exhibit, and/or prohibition on participation in future Annual Educational Conferences. Any exhibitor or exhibitor representative who is removed from the Annual Educational Conference shall be removed without refund or other appeal.

FORCE MAJEUR

In the event that Rosen Shingle Creek or any part of the exhibit area thereof, is unavailable, whether for the entire event, or a portion of the event, as a result of a fire, flood, tempest, or any such cause, or as a result of governmental intervention, malicious damage, acts of war, strike, lockout, labor dispute, riot, or any other cause or agency over which the ACGME and its representatives have no control, or should the ACGME decide because of any such cause it is necessary to cancel, postpone, or re-site the exhibit or reduce the installation time, exhibit time, or move out time, the ACGME or its representatives shall not be liable to indemnify or reimburse the exhibitor in respect of any damage or loss, direct or indirect, arising as a result thereof.

If you have any further questions, please contact the ACGME by e-mailing exhibitor@acgme.org.
