GENERAL PROGRAM INFORMATION

The ACGME is pleased to once again host the longstanding and successful annual Leadership Skills Training Programs. Three program dates are designed exclusively for pediatric chief residents, and five program dates are for rising chiefs from all medical and surgical specialties.

The experiential workshops consist of small-group sessions and exercises offering incoming chief residents the tools, skills, and learning environment to enhance their understanding of interpersonal communication and group dynamics, including skills critical to success and satisfaction as both a clinician and leader. New in 2017: All programs will be three days in length.

REGISTRATION

Registration is limited to 50 residents per session, and must be completed online with payment.

The registration fee is $1,015, and includes breakfast, lunch, and breaks for each conference day; dinner on the first conference day; and a syllabus and all workshop materials. Credit card payment is preferred and registration confirmation will be sent via e-mail immediately upon submission of payment. Registration submitted with payment by check will remain pending until payment is received by the ACGME. NOTE: Pending registrations will be cancelled if payment is not received by the registration deadline.

PLEASE DO NOT MAKE TRAVEL OR HOTEL RESERVATIONS UNTIL YOU RECEIVE CONFIRMATION OF ACCEPTANCE.

Cancellation and Refund Policies

A full refund will be given until 30 days prior to the program date. Cancellations requested less than 30 days before a scheduled workshop will incur a $125 administrative fee. No refunds will be made for cancellations made seven days or less prior to a workshop. Should the ACGME find it necessary to cancel a program, registrants will be provided a full refund of their registration fee. No refund for airfare or hotel will be provided by the ACGME.

Dress is casual for the entire program.

E-mail content questions to Ann Riley (ariley@acgme.org).

E-mail registration questions to Andrea Rio (ario@acgme.org).

FACULTY

ROBERT A. DOUGHTY, MD, PhD

Senior Scholar for Experiential Learning and Leadership Development
ACGME Department of Education
Course Director – Leadership Skills Training Program for Chief Residents

For over three decades, Robert A. Doughty, MD, PhD has designed and facilitated seminars to enhance leadership and management skills for future medical leaders. He is nationally recognized for his pioneering work in the development of experiential workshops for pediatric residents and chief residents designed to prepare them for their upcoming leadership role. In 2008, he joined the ACGME as Senior Scholar for Experiential Learning and Leadership Development, and in 2010 initiated the delivery of this training to all medical and surgical specialties. Dr. Doughty graduated from the University of Pennsylvania with an MD and a PhD in immunology. After training in pediatrics and pediatric rheumatology at the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia, he served as Director of the Pediatric Residency Program of Children's Hospital of Philadelphia and Associate Chairman of the Department of Pediatrics. Subsequently, Dr. Doughty joined Nemours, an organization nationally renowned for providing health services to children, where he served for two decades as chief medical executive of the Alfred I. duPont Hospital for Children and Nemours Children's Clinic. His leadership accomplishments at Nemours include expansion of the duPont Hospital for Children from an orthopaedic institution to a full-service children's hospital; establishing a top-ranked pediatric residency program; facilitating a three-way partnership affiliation between Nemours, Thomas Jefferson University, and the Christiana Care Health System; creating a network of pediatric sites for underserved populations in Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Florida; and implementing the electronic medical record and data warehouse. Dr. Doughty is professor of pediatrics at Jefferson Medical College. He is the author of numerous publications on both pediatric rheumatology and experiential training of physicians.

Timothy P. Brigham, MDiv, PhD

Chief of Staff, ACGME and
Senior Vice President, ACGME Department of Education

As head of the Department of Education, Dr. Brigham's responsibilities include the ACGME's Annual Educational Conference, the Outcome Project, and the development of new educational programs for the ACGME. Prior to joining the ACGME in 2008, Dr. Brigham served since 1989 in several capacities at Jefferson Medical College, including as associate dean for graduate medical education and continuing medical education, senior associate dean for organizational development, chief of staff, and associate professor of medicine. Dr. Brigham has been involved in physician faculty development, resident education, and chief resident and program director development. He is widely sought after as a teacher, speaker, group facilitator, and consultant in a variety of areas, including resident stress and well-being; chief resident, program director, and chair personal leadership development; medical student, resident, and faculty teaching development; and group and team organizational development. Dr. Brigham holds a PhD in psychological studies in education from Temple University, a master's degree in counseling and human relations from Villanova University, and a master's of divinity from Palmer Theological Seminary.
