Faculty Survey
Milestones (Completion Only)
Faculty Certification

PLEASE ensure that all faculty licensure and certification information is up-to-date in ADS.

Multiple faculty rosters reviewed have inaccurate or outdated faculty information.
Tips to Remember…

PD is responsible for the accuracy of the data:

Inaccurate data can lead to unnecessary citations and/or adverse actions

Data omissions are flagged:

< 70% response on Resident Survey
< 60% response on Faculty Survey

Print Annual Update for your records.

- New FAQs!
- Program Requirement Revisions
Q: We are applying for an EM residency program and our primary site has less than 30,000 annual visits, but we use two sites equally, and combined the two sites have significantly more than 30,000. Can we add the two together? [Program Requirement II.D.6)]

A: No. Programs cannot combine the annual patient volume of two sites to meet the minimum 30,000 requirement.
Q: Are there any qualifications specific to emergency medicine faculty members in reference to supervision?
A: Emergency medicine residents who are rotating in a pediatric emergency department in which there are also pediatric emergency medicine fellows in an ACGME accredited program are subject to the faculty supervision requirements for the pediatric emergency medicine program. In other words, qualifications for faculty of an ACGME accredited Pediatric Emergency Medicine program include: certification in pediatric emergency medicine, pediatrics, or emergency medicine (two faculty members must be certified in pediatric emergency medicine).

In all other instances, faculty members solely board-certified in pediatrics may not supervise emergency medicine residents in the Emergency Department.
Other New FAQs:

- On-call hours, including scheduled sick call or back-up call, are not considered in the calculation of duty hours, unless the resident is called in to work a duty period.
- At-home call includes “sick call” and “back-up call”
- How to define core faculty “sufficient time” devoted to the program
- EM Milestones should NOT be used as goals and objectives
- How to determine critical care volume
- Expectation for multisource evaluations
