

EIP Application Selection Criteria

Residency Review Committee for Internal Medicine

Innovations are:

- Broad-based
- Important
- Directed at the patient care system
- Inclusive of new training models
- Integrated advancements of resident education and quality patient care

Methods and Evaluation

- Appropriate curriculum and educational methods
- QI methods/structure adequately described
- New evaluation tools, competency-based are presented
- Outcome evaluations of innovations are appropriate
- All competencies evaluated

Infrastructure

- Electronic Health Record, information systems, and improvement methodology are in place
- Potential failure modes are anticipated, noted and addressed
- Appropriate venues and faculty
- Structure of program is sound & rationale is provided
- Strong institutional support