ACGME Resident Survey

Clinical Experience and Preparedness - Transitional Year Programs

The following questions are about your learning experience in your program and your preparedness to provide competent patient care.

I have had sufficient clinical experience with common medical problems to enable me to:

		Yes	No
a)	Obtain a comprehensive and accurate medical history	○	○
b)	Perform an accurate and focused medical exam	○	○
c)	Define a patient's problems	○	○
d)	Develop a rational plan for diagnosis	○	○
e)	Implement therapy based on the etiology, pathogenesis, and clinical manifestations of various diseases	○	○

During my transitional year program I have improved in my ability to:

		Yes	No
a)	Transition care of my patients to another provider	○	○
b)	Respond to the needs of diverse patients	○	○
c)	Respect patient privacy	○	○
d)	Respect patient autonomy	○	○
e)	Report a near miss or error using the hospital reporting system	○	○
f)	Propose potential solutions to improve patient safety or the quality of care	○	○

Does your program provide planned educational experiences (such as conferences, lectures) appropriate to your level of training that enhance your development as a physician?

○ Yes　　　　○ No

Are you offered educational opportunities equivalent to those provided to first-year residents in categorical programs in which you participate?

○ Yes　　　　○ No