The Review Committee for Nuclear Medicine is requesting nominations for its next resident member.

Qualifications of the Resident Member
A nominee must be a resident in an ACGME-accredited nuclear medicine program or a combined, five-year diagnostic radiology/nuclear medicine program. A nominee must be able to serve a two-year term beginning July 1, 2020. Nominees must have at least one year of residency education remaining after July 1, 2020. The resident member must not be from the same institution as another member of the Review Committee, and no more than two Review Committee members, including the resident member, may be from the same state.

Review Committee members’ institutions and states:

- University of Alabama Hospital, Birmingham, Alabama
- Stanford University, Stanford, California
- University of California San Francisco, San Francisco, California
- Emory University School of Medicine, Atlanta, Georgia
- Children’s Hospital of Boston, Boston, Massachusetts
- University of Michigan Hospitals, Ann Arbor, Michigan
- Baltimore, Maryland
Responsibilities of the Review Committee Resident Member
The resident member participates as a full voting member in all Review Committee activities, including program review and policy discussion. The resident member is subject to the same confidentiality, conflict of interest, duality of interest, and fiduciary responsibility policies as the other members. Resident members must be able to devote several hours to program review before each Review Committee meeting.

The resident member is also a member of the ACGME Council of Review Committee Residents (CRCR). The CRCR is composed of the resident members of each Review Committee, and provides valuable input and feedback to the ACGME Board about matters related to residents, graduate medical education, and accreditation.

Selection Process
The Review Committee will review nominations, and forward its selection for the next resident member to the ACGME Board of Directors for approval.

To Submit a Nomination
Each submitted nomination must include:
1. A personal statement
2. Current curriculum vitae (CV)
3. Letter of recommendation from the nominee’s program director ensuring that he or she will have sufficient time to participate in activities of the Review Committee and the ACGME as expected.

Submit nominations by April 30, 2020 to Associate Executive Director Jenny Campbell at jcampbell@acgme.org.

All program directors who submit nominations will be notified of the selection by email after confirmation by the ACGME Board of Directors in June 2020.

Additional Information
All new Committee members are required to participate in New Member Orientation. Dates and times will be arranged by the Review Committee staff. The duration of both the Review Committee and CRCR meetings is one to two-and-a-half days. Members are expected to attend all meetings.

The Review Committee for Nuclear Medicine meets two times per year usually in February and April. At times, the Committee may meet via conference call according to the meeting agenda. All travel and meeting-related expenses are covered by the ACGME.
The CRCR meets twice per year, for two days, in the spring and fall.

All meetings take place at the ACGME offices in Chicago, Illinois, and all meeting-related expenses are covered by the ACGME.

Visit the ACGME website for more information about the ACGME. Information specific to the Review Committee for Nuclear Medicine is on the Nuclear Medicine section of the ACGME website.

Contact Associate Executive Director Jenny Campbell with questions at jcampbell@acgme.org or 312.755.5044.
