

Frequently Asked Questions: Health Care Administration, Management, and Leadership Institutional Review Committee
ACGME

Question	Answer
Personnel
What are examples of roles that would count toward the program director's required experience as a physician executive leader? [Program Requirement: II.A.3.c]	A qualified program director will have at least five years of cumulative experience in any of a variety of executive roles within health systems, including but not limited to, those of a chief executive officer, president, chief medical officer, physician practice plan executive, chief quality officer, or medical director of a health care service line (inpatient or outpatient).
What are examples of roles that would count toward the program director's required experience as an educator? [Program Requirement: II.A.3.e]	A qualified program director will have at least three years of experience providing formal education to any type(s) of learner(s) in health care environments, or will be subject to an educational mentorship plan overseen by the administration of the Sponsoring Institution.